

INTERNSHIP BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT, SWEDEN (M/F)

Start: now | Place: Berlin | Position: Internship | Duration: 3-6 months

Are you ENTHUSIASTIC...

... about exciting topics relating to nutrition and E-commerce? Do you believe strategic thinking and creativity are not mutually exclusive? Then come and join us!

We are Europe's leading provider of intelligent nutrition. Whether you want to lose weight, improve your nutrition, eat organic, get fit, or care for your skin naturally – we can help you to reach your goal and to live healthier and more sustainably.

Your tasks

- Analyses of markets and competitors to prepare recommendations for the (project) management
- Supporting entry strategies into international markets and further analysis of new business areas
- Identification and approach of potential customers and partners
- Alignment of our online presence with the international markets, focussing on Sweden
- Design and implementation of stand-alone projects in the areas of project management, online marketing, product management, operations and sourcing

What we expect

- You are a student of economics, business administration or enrolled within a related field and your results are well above average
- You have gained already some practical experience, ideally in the area of business development
- You have more than good analytical, organizational and communicational skills
- You are decisive, creative, pragmatic and used to work independently in dynamic contexts
- You show high levels of self-confidence, flexibility and your own initiative while contributing to the team's success
- You are confident in working with MS Office, especially with Excel
- You have a great affinity for internet related matters as well as for numbers
- You speak Swedish at native-speaker level

What we offer

- A unique job in an innovation-friendly company
- (Really!) varied and versatile tasks with responsibility and lots of opportunities
- A motivating atmosphere in a dedicated team with a flat hierarchy
- Flexible hours, great team events and creative breaks, e.g. at the football table
- An office in the heart of Berlin which offers everything you need – and then some more

Do you want be a part of our development? Then send your application including cover letter (complete with salary requirements and desired start date), CV with certificates, work samples and references (if applicable), to Antje (jobs@nu3.de). Additionally, feel free to contact us with any questions.